

DirigoChoice Enrollment January 2010 – January 2011

Enrollment includes HCTC, PCIP, and standard DirigoChoice

Distributed DHA Board meeting 01/10/2010

Comparison of Subsidy Level Distribution in DirigoChoice between January 2010 and January 2011

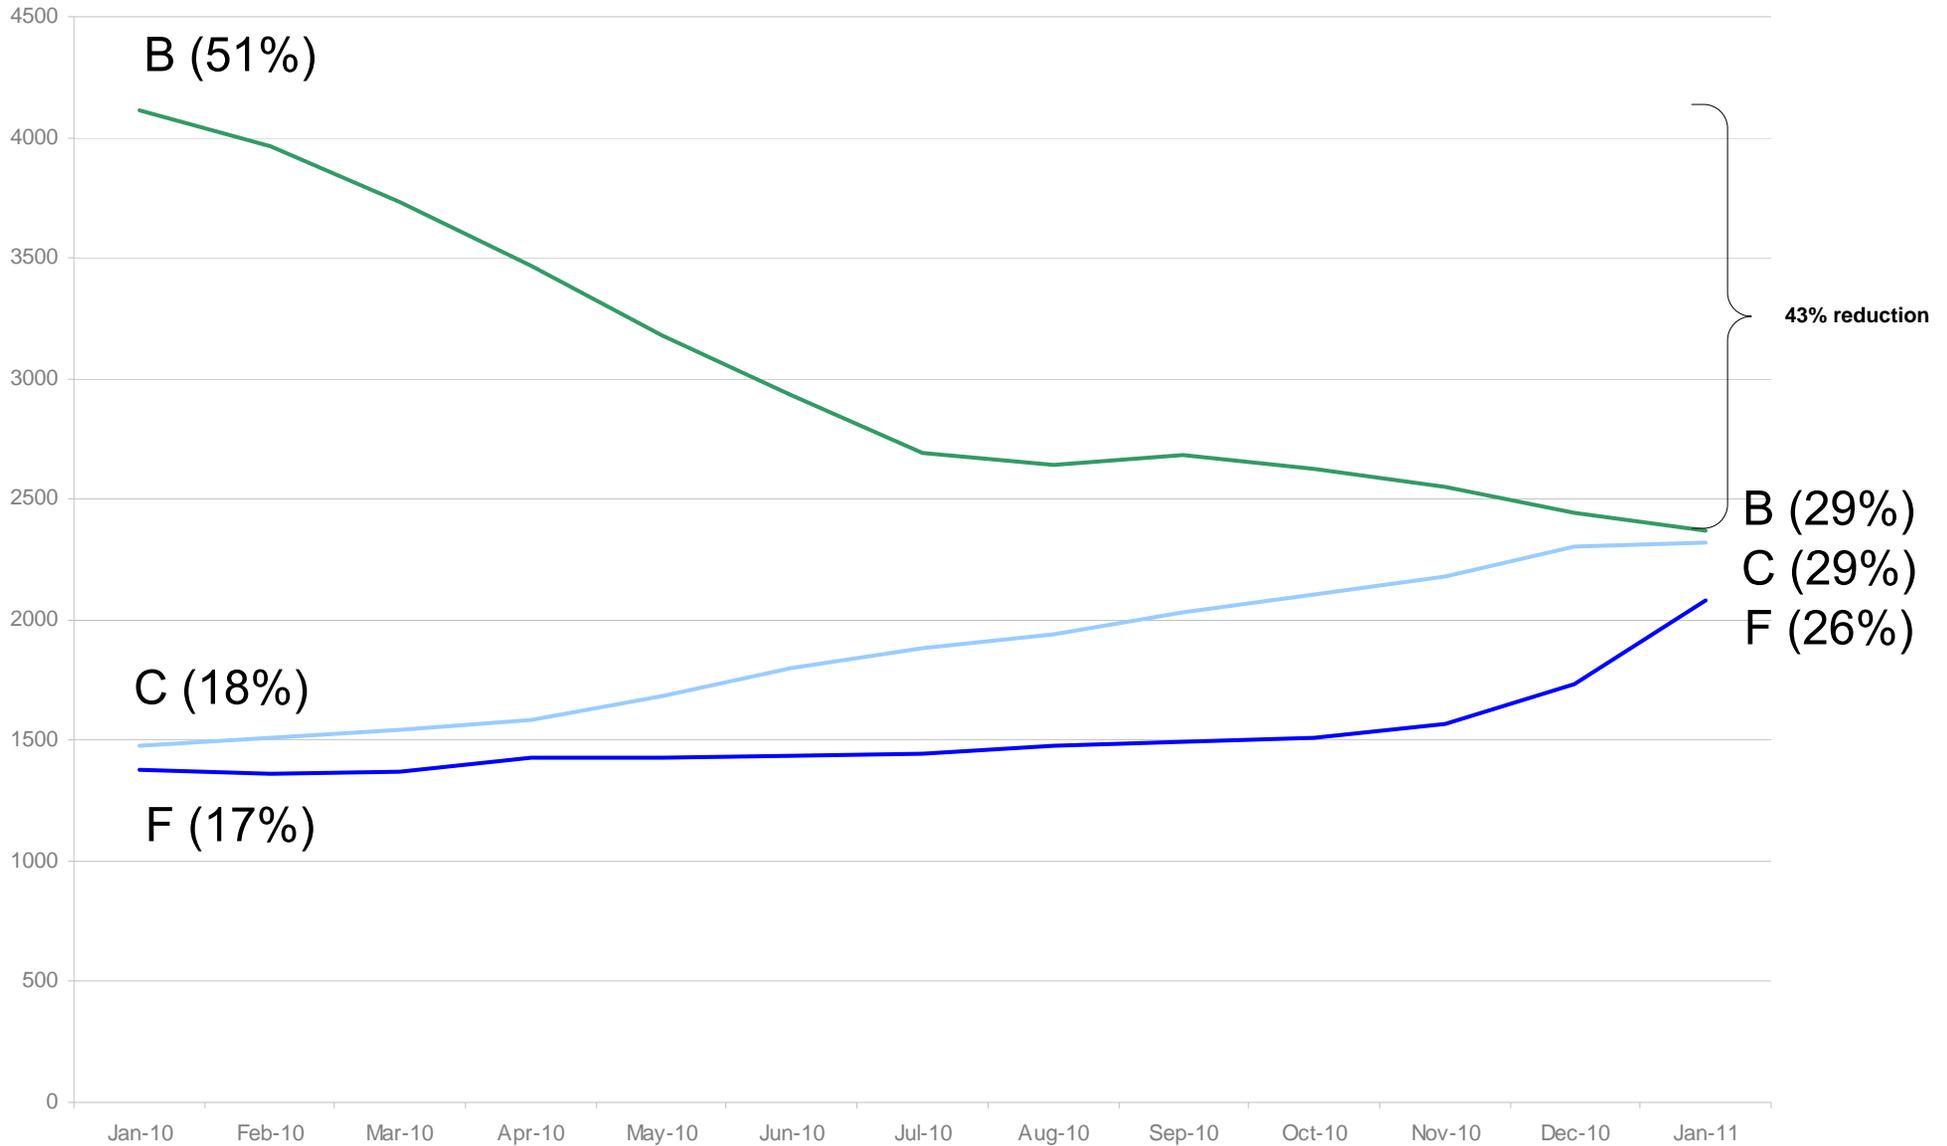

Enrollment includes HCTC, PCIP, and standard DirigoChoice

Distributed DHA Board meeting 01/10/2010

Subsidy levels correspond with income and asset eligibility determinations. Level B is the most significant subsidy, and corresponds with income below $16,245 for a single and $33,075 for a family of four with assets below $15,000 for a single and $30,000 for a family.

Subsidy Level Trend January 2010 – January 2011

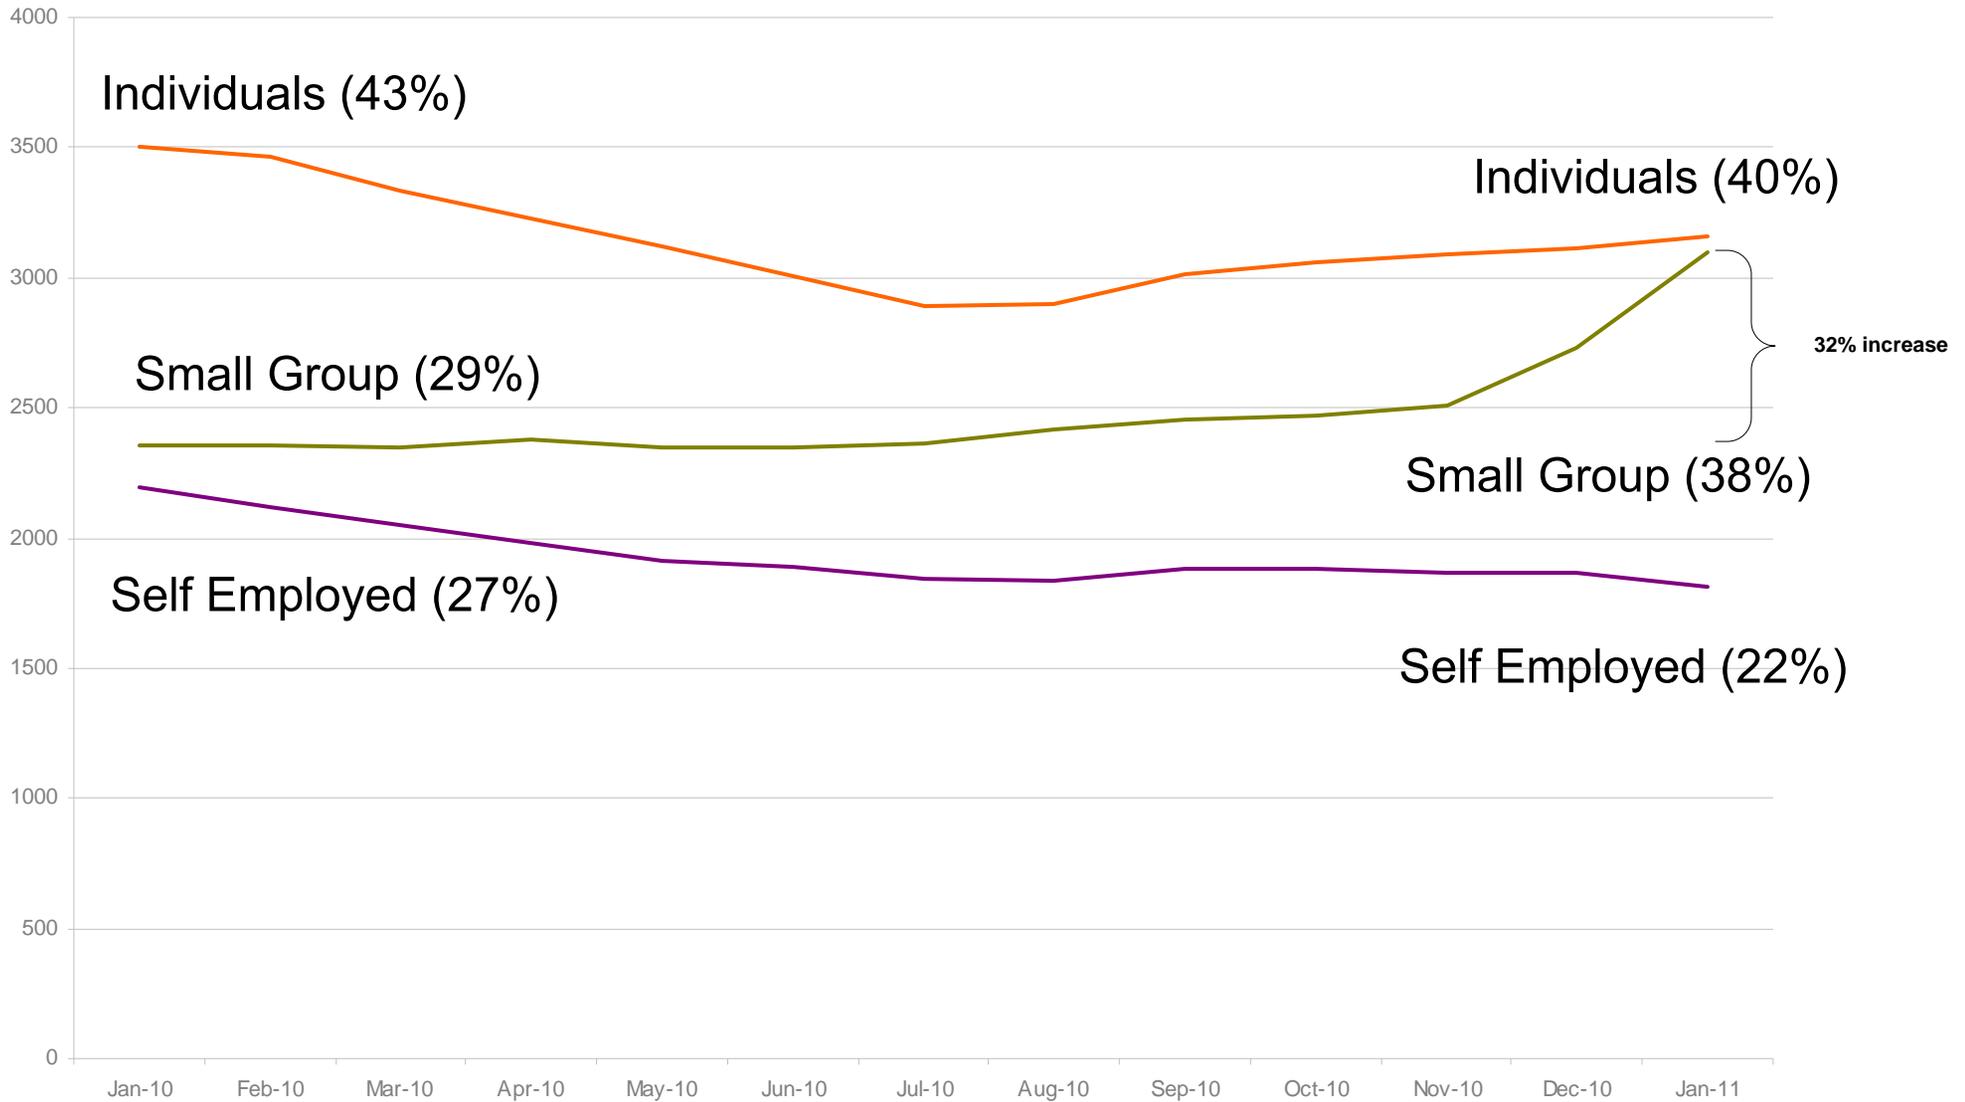

Enrollment includes HCTC, PCIP, and standard DirigoChoice

Distributed DHA Board meeting 01/10/2010

Subsidy levels correspond with income and asset eligibility determinations. Level B is the most significant subsidy, and corresponds with income below $16,245 for a single and $33,075 for a family of four with assets below $15,000 for a single and $30,000 for a family.

Segment Trend January 2010 – January 2011

Enrollment includes HCTC, PCIP, and standard DirigoChoice

Distributed DHA Board meeting 01/10/2010

DirigoChoice Net Member Growth August 2010 – January 2011

Enrollment includes HCTC, PCIP, and standard DirigoChoice

Distributed DHA Board meeting 01/10/2010

Subsidy levels correspond with income and asset eligibility determinations. Level B is the most significant subsidy, and corresponds with income below $16,245 for a single and $33,075 for a family of four with assets below $15,000 for a single and $30,000 for a family.